SENIOR CLASS

If you girls will bring me my glasses,
The ones with the colored lens,
I'll take a glance at the future
Of our '54' women and men.
Ten years have passed in a hurry
Since they left dear Bad Axe High,
And most of their futures are bright,
I see,
Thru my glasses as they pass by.
Dick Palm, you will well remember,
Is Doctor of hospital now,
The Head of Bad Axe General,
With Kervin (Joanne) his frau.
His nurses are Donna Steiner,
Gail Ternes and Jean Pechette,
Catherine Varney and Edith Campbell.
Wilford Bowron's an athlete yet;
He's a star in the upper circle
Of world-wide fame, they say,
(President of his senior class,
And star of his Senior play).
James Kervin is still a player.
But professional now in fame's hall;
Remember him as high point man
In High School basketball.
Jim Cameron's a hot-rod driver
On the Indianapolis track;
With his own car, the Creeping Tom,
He's lucky if he gets back.
The stock yard is owned by Jo Labor;
And the roller rink's Carol Britt's.
And Beverly Day is married
And happily sings as she knits.
Her husband's a wealthy farmer.
Bob Hacker's potato king,
Jerry Sullivan teaches in high school.
(Journalism's the coming thing.)
George Wessel's the band instructor;
Victor Sternberg teaches at State,
College Zoology professor,
But he hasn't found a mate.
Marvel Hill lives in Port Huron
With her husband and the twins;
Bob Rogers' an army major
Who orders his men and grins.
Paul Volk and Owen Perkins
Are professors at Michigan State;
Jerry Hynek owns Ted's Market;
Pat Brown's a Captain's mate.

Mereta is boss of a dude ranch,
The "Pangborn Rockies" out West,
Riding and roping and singing
While entertaining her guests.
The principal now of Bad Axe
Is Melva Lamb, I see,
And Beverly Brown and husband
Own an Arkansas hatchery.
Pat Simons and ex-paratrooper
Are happily married, too;
And Carolyn Shubert and husband
Are cooking the Bean Pot stew.
Yes, Mary Haller is married,
She and Bob Nichol have twins.
Dot Morris lives in the city
With husband and "daughterlings"
Paul Moore is a well known author,
Confucius quotations in book;
Ann Greyerbiehl and Pat Costello
Were lately pictured in "Look", -
Together they own a restaurant.
In her job at Michigan Bell
Is still Miss Bernice Pangborn;
I see she's doing well.
Ramona Bucholtz and Rosalyn Koth
Are married, but still are pals.
Clark Shuart is still a bachelor, -
What's the matter with some gals?
He owns the "Super Market"
In the City of New York.
John Wolshlager and Marvin Rockefeller
Are raising beef and pork.
Sally Toner married early,
A former air-force man;
She lives in Cleveland, Ohio,
Is an ardent baseball fan.
Virginia Meinhold's in business;
Her father's Sani-Seal
Provides rich milk for her kiddies
With vitamins extra-real.
Florence Tack has recently entered
A contest for giggling champ
To win for her cozy boudoir
An electric table lamp.
Shirley Cook and her husband,
Share the "Made-Rite Potato Chips";
Rita Kranz and Lavonne Kuntz
Are married, -on waitress tips.
Dick Mason and Sons are famous

PROPHECY

For selling so many cars;
Lyn Pangborn, Gale Erbe and Dick Ackerman
Are some of their salesman stars.
Jim Hall is a noted comedian;
He owns Arthur Godfrey's, I see.
Frank Kanaski's a shop instructor
With a two-hundred salary.
Arthur Miller and Clarence Krozek
And Jurgess (that is, Duane)
Are Huron County farmers-
And their cattle have won them fame.
Jean Campbell has bought a horse ranch
In Texas, -all her own;
And Mary Ellen Haley
Has started a "Horse to Loan".
Marion Inwood and Christine Masa
And Betty Reinke, too,
Have all married healthy farmers
With wealth, and work to do.
Ken Adams and Bob Osentoski
Now own their own bus string-
And have their fun in summer,
And troubles from fall to spring.
Marilyn McAllister's a lawyer,
She took her father's place;
Her secretary's Florence Nelson,
The girl with the poise and grace.
Doris Trepkoski is busy
With Doc and little Doc II
Cooking and stewing and planning
As all good wives must do.
The rose colored lens of my glasses
Are dimming, - it's getting late;
So I'll just wish good luck to all members
Of the '54 future estate.

SENIOR HISTORY

In 1950, eighty-four freshman entered Bad Axe High School. These freshman took the name of the class of "54". As we became settled we first elected the following officers: President, Wilford Bowron; Vice-President, Bill Armstrong; Shirley Cook was elected as Secretary, Dick Mason as Treasurer, and Dick Palm as Student Council Representative. Our sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lynch.

In this year the class of "54" sponsored a Christmas decoration sale, and dances which helped the class treasury greatly. At the close of the school year we journeyed to the shores of Lake Huron for our first class picnic.

As we entered school in the fall of 1951, we were Sophomores. Our class election of officers was held with Dick Mason as President, Bob Nichol, Vice-President; Doris Trepkoski, Secretary; and Mary Haller, Treasurer; and Romona Bucholtz as Class Representative. Sponsors for this year were Mrs. Phillips and Mr. Ignash.

The first social event sponsored was the party to welcome the freshmen. We had concessions for two home football games, some dances, and an outdoor party, which added to the class fund. Our class picnic rounded out the activities for the year.

After entering the Junior year we again took time out to elect the following class officers: President, Dick Mason; Vice-President, Jerry Sullivan; Secretary, Doris Trepkoski; Treasurer, Shirley Cook, and Class Representative, Wilford Bowron. This year we were under the guiding hands of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Stoner.

A magazine sale that winter proved to be the most successful in the history of the school. Another successful event was the annual J-Hop. The theme we choose was "Harvest Moon" and a Harvest king and queen were crowned.

The Junior play, "Mother is a Freshman", a comedy with three acts, was presented with one cast under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dodge. We also sponsored after game dances and sold refreshments at games.

At the end of this busy year we took time out to visit and swim on the shores of Lake Huron at our last class picnic.

Entering upon our final year, the last journey of the class of "54" was in view. This year we became known as Seniors.

First we sponsored the Sadie Hawkins Dance. Next came our Senior pictures and our Senior play, "The Case of the Missing Heirs". Mrs. Pearl Olson was the director, and the play was presented with double cast. This play was a great success and it added more money towards our Senior trip.

Again we launched another magazine sale, which helped our class a great deal. Other doings we undertook were checking of coats, selling refreshments, sponsoring after the game dances, and completed our Christmas project for the Chamber of Commerce.

Our biggest events of the year was the Christmas Banquet, with "Silver Bells" as the theme. Our greatest event of the year was our Senior prom held in April.

Our last all-wise leaders that were elected in the fall of "53" to guide us through our last year were: Wilford Bowron, President; Jerry Sullivan, Vice-President; Doris Trepkoski, Secretary; Shirley Cook and Gail Ternes as Treasurers, and Student Council Representative, Dick Mason. Our faithful sponsors during our Junior and Senior year were Mr. and Mrs. Harley Stoner.

In June of "54" as school was coming to a close, our class left good old Bad Axe High for our eight-day Senior trip to New York and Washington D. C.

We had a wonderful time with you Bad Axe High, and you will live in our memory forever.

Graduation came June, 1954 and our class received their diplomas and departed from our four years at Bad Axe High.

SUMMARY OF GAMES

With one backfield man and two linemen from the 1952 championship team returning, the Bad Axe gridders started off very successfully by overpowering Harbor Beach 55-0. Bob Case scored three times, Tom Rapson twice.

Marlette proved to be a rough customer before the locals put them away 24-7.

A very spirited Cass City club severely tested the Hatchets but to no avail as the home club won 13-7. Outstanding defensive work was performed by Ron Rogers and Oarie Lemanski.

Cros-Lex appeared quite inept against a charged-up Bad Axe eleven, and ended up with a total gain on the ground of 25 yards and one first down. Touchdowns were made by Rogers, 2, and Kervin 2 on outstanding catches. Final score 31-0.

A repeat 31-0 win over Yale brought Bad Axe's winning streak to 14 games. This time a weak Yale squad showed little opposition as the entire Hatchet squad played at one time or another.

The big game of the year featured a spirited Caro team over-powering Bad Axe 35-18. The local boys were off their usual performance and so ended a fine winning streak. TD's were made in this contest by Rapson and Case.

A quick rebound found the Hatchets winning a very close battle with Sandusky 13-7. Lemanski completed two touchdown passes to Jim Kervin and Jerry Hynek.

The season's finale was an offensive masterpiece for the home town boys as they handled a tough Vasser Squad 37-0. Scorers for Bad Axe were Case, Rapson, Kervin and Chumbler.

It was a fine team victory and gave Bad Axe an excellent record for 1953.
